Insulin Administration (IA) Instructor Checklist

- ☐ Check the EDL list by phone 573-522-6510 or online at www.dhss.mo.gov/EDL/
- ☐ Check for prior Insulin certification by searching the online registry at <https://mo.tmutest.com>.
- ☒ A person MUST have a current DHSS Level One Medication Aide or CMT certification or prior to receiving an Insulin certification. If a person holds a LIMA certification from the Department of Mental Health, please contact our office for information on obtaining a DHSS LIMA certification.

Once Training has been completed: Return the following Insulin documents within 10 days after testing – ORIGINALS ONLY.

Failure to return materials to the certifying agency will result in the Insulin certificate not being issued and the Department of Health and Senior Services will not have record of a student being Insulin certified and may result in the instructor's certification being revoked. ******

Insulin certificates and wallet cards for each student will be sent to the training agency address unless otherwise noted.

- ☐ Insulin Training Cover Sheet – must contain the name/signature of the recommending Administrator or DON; legibly printed name of Instructor, phone number and date.
- ☐ Copy of each student's LIMA or CMT certificate OR a printout from the Health and Senior Services online registry search at <https://mo.tmutest.com>.
- ☐ Original Appendix A – Final Record/Competencies for each student – must contain the name/signature of the recommending Administrator or DON.
- ☐ Fee - Company Check/money order - personal checks are not accepted
